

LoneStar Delivery & Process enters the fight against H1N1 outbreak- provides statewide laboratory courier services to meet the emergency.

Houston, TX April 30, 2009- 800am -Governor Perry's news conference in San Antonio announces that the state is prepared and will take action to combat the threat of The Swine Flu, H1N1 Outbreak-

By 845am, the phone was ringing at LoneStar Delivery & Process. Within a few short hours, Chris Kurzadkowski and his staff had organized a statewide effort to support the Department of Health and Human Services, and were awarded a contract with emergency on demand service throughout the entire state. Working with the state agency and supporting efforts combined with the CDC, LoneStar Delivery & Process will cover immediate demand for the delivery of specimens collected for testing, as well as provide other emergency on demand services including the delivery of vaccines and testing kits additionally as required.

LoneStar Delivery & Process provides specialized 24 hour on demand courier and messenger services, with an emphasis on Medical and legal courier service. The demands for service are high, and the company has organized an effort, enlisting strategic partners who will work at the same standard that LoneStar drivers are expected to operate at. The coverage is in both outlying remote areas as well as the larger metro areas. Service deliveries can be called in from anywhere that will end up going to testing labs in Houston, Dallas, Ft Worth, Tyler, Lubbock, Austin, San Antonio, El Paso, and Corpus Christi.

The companies motto- "We're Texans Serving Texans- 24 hours a day" has more meaning now than ever before, said Kurzadkowski- "Now the work we do not only serves all of Texas- but we're helping save lives" The company will provide not only the service, but also make available to the state their sophisticated on-line services with Real- Time Tracking through their website, <http://www.lonestardeliveryonline.com>

Take a look at what LoneStar Delivery & Process has to offer to your Legal, Medical, Professional or High Tech business.
