LoneStar Delivery & Process Owner is a “Super Process Server” in SuperLawyers Magazine

Houston, TX March 21, 2008

Chris Kurzadkowski, Owner of LoneStar Delivery & Process is a “Super Process Server”- and in a bold marketing move has Launched his companies SuperLawyers Campaign throughout Texas. Chris has been included in this year’s edition of SuperLawyers- Rising Stars Edition of the magazine, and is showcasing the firm for the entire legal community of Texas to see.

Super Lawyers Magazine is the Legal Industry’s magazine, featuring Attorneys and firms from all types of practices that are selected to be in the magazine. This prestigious publication has over 60,000 readers- attorneys from all areas of Texas, practicing all types of law.

“Even The Best Attorneys Need Super Process Servers” Remarked Kurzadkowski, who is an accomplished Supreme Court Certified Process server in the state of Texas, with over 2,000 services in just an 18 month period, and over 30 years in the industry.

LoneStar Delivery & Process as a firm has performed over 5,000 services in just the last 18 months, making the company the single largest process servers in the Clear Lake/ Bay Area Houston region.

No one ever gets away...

“We employ state of the art technology to track each service, to find each person and determined diligence to get the job done” Kurzadkowski noted. The company current enjoys a 100% completion rate because of it, and is the choice of some of the largest and most prestigious firms in Texas, as well as 3 state agencies.

LoneStar Delivery & Process is a full service Legal Courier & Process service. From beginning to end, a combination of drivers, court runners and process servers work in concert to provide a fully functional service to meet every attorneys need, every step of the process.

Court Filings, Researching court documents, walking through orders for judges' signature, mobile notary services, process service, courier deliveries to opposing counsel, exhibit preparation, court room setup and support and even subpoena preparation are all done by the firm

For local service in the Houston area, Chris has a staff of 6 process servers, and 4 legal specialists in the office to support them- this is in addition to the 10 drivers and court runners that service Harris, Brazoria, Galveston, Ft Bend, Montgomery and Chambers counties. Plans are in the works to expand local service and add another 6 process servers full time, with a Paralegal on staff to assist sole practitioners with document preparation, research and filing preparation.

For services outside the Houston Metro area, Kurzadkowski has setup a network of agents that conform to the same high standards as is required of his local servers. International services are done both formal and informal under the Hague convention rules, and there is even a walkthrough service for some countries that is available utilizing the consulates in Houston.

Delivery and court runner staff wear distinctive Red, White and Blue uniforms- and are trained in courthouse procedures and document retrieval.

Making the Difference with every service

“Texas is uniquely suited to support a service like ours. The very nature and complexity of Texas law requires effective service of process- and holds it in high importance” Kurzadkowski commented. “Skilled Runners, Effective process servers, correct and accurate documentation, and proper follow through is what we do- and what sets us apart from every other service in the state”

The company is uniquely setup to support the legal industry, providing convenience and services far above those of its contemporaries. LoneStar Delivery & Process is open 24 Hours a day- with a live, trained and knowledgeable process server answering the phone- ready at a moments notice to do follow-up, research, or even serve someone in the wee hours of the morning if necessary.

The company's motto is, "Texans Serving Texans-24 Hours a day" and it's really true. Some jobs require serving persons at 3am- and it happens about 2-3 times per month.

The company truly is remarkable, in its effort, focus and service to its primary clientele- and meets the demands of attorneys and firms all over the country

After reviewing all of the capabilities of this organization, it's clear to see why Chris Kurzadkowski is a "Super Process Server", and LoneStar Delivery & Process is home to "Super Service"
